FORESTRY CAMP ENDS

The twelfth annual Boys' Forestry Camp was held during the week of June 24 through June 29. State Forester George W. Dean stated that 100 boys attended camp this year and carried back to their communities a wealth of knowledge learned from the forestry courses taught at the camp.

The camp is held each year at Holliday Lake. One hundred scholarships were awarded to Virginia boys between the ages of 14 and 18 years, judged the most deserving from the standpoint of activity and interest shown in sound forest conservation methods.

Attending from Appomattox County were Tommy Drinkard and Douglas Martin, both of the Appomattox High School.

The Forestry Camp is financed by Virginia pulpwood - using industries, sponsored by the Southern Pulpwood Conservation Association and managed by the Virginia Division of Forestry.
